

WELCOME TO THE FISH HOUSE RESTAURANT & SEAFOOD MARKET LUNCH MENU

Specializing in the finest seafood available, The Fish House opened just as the Conch Republic was born. Since the key to terrific seafood lies in the freshness... we made that our trademark.

At our very doorstep we find one of the most prolific areas in the world for marine life, including a host of edible fish. Daily we supervise the harvest of the finest eating critters on earth...and we put them on your table while they are at their tastiest peak.

Fresh-caught fish arrives daily at the dock and is brought directly to The Fish House. Our experienced staff hand picks the best fish, separating it by size, then weighing it. The fish are then carefully filleted on site, combined with only the freshest ingredients and spices, and cooked to perfection.

So relax. Get laid back like the locals do, and dig into our scrumptious conch-style cooking. Keys people know that fine fish meals start at The Fish House.

If you don't have time for lunch or dinner, check out the fish market. We'll pack it up for your trip home, or we'll ship it. You'll be glad you did!

Yours Truly,
C.J., Doug, & The Fish House Gang

Lunch Entrees

The Fish House is one of the few remaining seafood establishments that buys only whole fish from local commercial fishermen. We fillet the catch on the premises to maintain the highest quality. Stone Crab and Lobster, when in season, are also brought to us fresh by the trappers. Since we offer only the freshest finest fish available, we may not have your favorite on a particular day.

Black Grouper

Olive or gray body covered with black blotches and brassy spots; of the sea bass group. Found off shore on rocky bottoms, reefs and by drop-off walls in water over 60 feet deep. Commonly as large as 40 lbs., may be as large as 100 lbs.

Extra lean white meat is quite firm with large flake and medium flavor.

Cobia

Long, slim fish with broad, depressed head; projected lower jaw and dark lateral stripe. Found in shore and near shore in inlets and bays, near structures like pilings and wrecks.

Texture is soft and moist with nice white flake and full flavor.

Hogfish

A member of the Wrasse family, the hogfish is sometimes mistakenly called a Hog Snapper. With a pointy snout, thick lips and protruding canine teeth, it reaches up to 45 lbs., but averages 4-6 lbs.

Pure white meat with subtly sweet mild flavor, with a medium to small flake.

Amberjack

Dark stripe extends from nose to front of dorsal fin. Found off shore near rocky reefs, debris and wrecks, in 60-240 feet of water. Sometimes caught near shore in South Florida.

Extra lean darker meat with firm texture and mild flavor, flakes well.

Wahoo

Also called Oahu or Pacific Kingfish, the wahoo is found worldwide in tropical and temperate waters. It can reach up to 100 lbs. Back is a brilliant electric blue, with bright blue tiger stripes banding down to the belly. The wahoo is one of the fastest fish in the sea and when hooked, can peel off several hundred feet of line in seconds. Hence its name!

White meat, firm in texture, full in flavor.

Yellowtail Snapper

Back and upper sides olive to blue with yellow spots; lower sides and belly with alternating longitudinal pink and yellow stripes. Mid-lateral yellow stripe from mouth to tail. Found off shore or near shore on grass beds, back reefs and sandy areas.
